

Agnes Leung Ka Woon

Producer / Director

The process of producing a video, from an idea up till it screen in front of a house of audience is the most amazing and magical moment which I am chasing for.

ABOUT ME

My Journey As a Producer

Graduated from The Hong Kong Academy for Performing Art, School of Film and Television, major in producing and production management
10 years+ experiences in video production field, my career started from the HKJC as a Assistant Producer, handling daily raceday live operation and also TV Programme and Marketing Promo, all this practice strengthen my all rounded production skills from Pre-production up till post production.

Then I finish my Post-Graduate in CUHK, Cultural Management in order to strength my organization and management skills.

I join Salon Films in 2017, having a chance to working with overseas production team to producer different kind of TVC and Videos makes me learn more and widen my sight. With the experiences in live broadcasting, we helping a lot of local and overseas clients producing webinar during these pandemic period which ground me an online producing experience makes me become an all-round producer.
